

Prequalification and supplier monitoring

Prequalification for Construction Groups

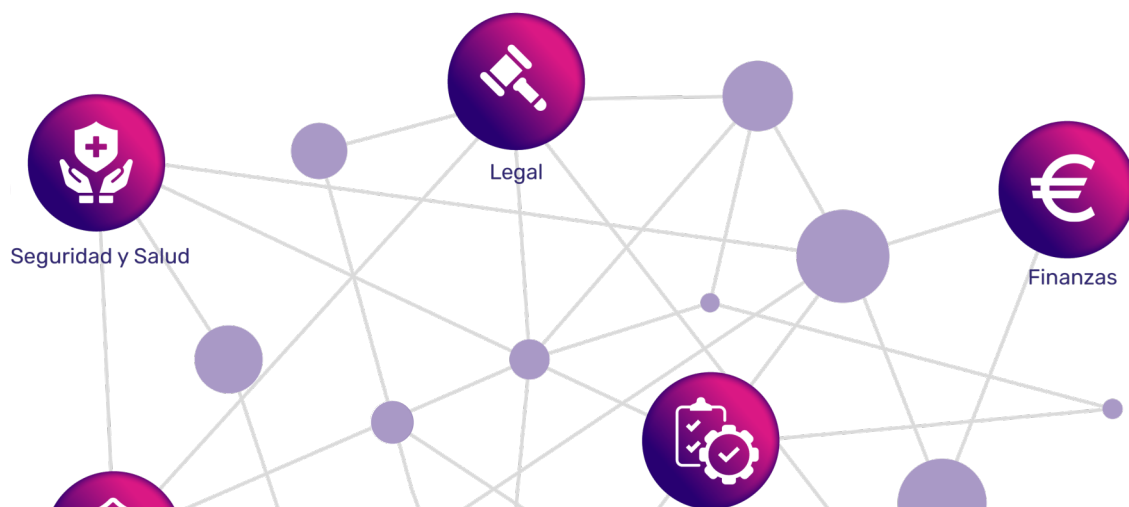

Access the largest Community of prequalified suppliers ready to work with you. Leverage the power of integration with CAE and the Marketplace to benefit from richer information, better monitoring, and seamless operations.

Efficient Prequalification for Companies within Construction Groups

Ensure your procurement processes are sustainable, compliant, and reliable.

There are strong reasons to automate the prequalification of your suppliers:

- Complex and ever-changing regulatory compliance.
- Time savings on collecting, auditing, and monitoring information and documentation.
- Risk reduction, greater transparency, and procurement optimization.

And even stronger reasons to do it within the Construction Community:

- Immediate onboarding: subcontractors ready to prequalify now.
- Leverage CAE data for even deeper insight.
- Trade with your supply chain through the integrated Marketplace.

Optimize your procurement and planning

Tap into the network knowledge of the largest Community of Construction Groups and benefit from our sector expertise

Essential compliance, ready from day one, with all the flexibility you need for the rest

Easily manage and expand your supply chain with reliable and solvent suppliers effortlessly.

- Instantly meet your due diligence obligations with our standard prequalification – for both current and new suppliers.
- Add your own questionnaires with full flexibility.
- Free yourself from the burden of collecting, auditing, and monitoring supplier documentation.

Improve Supply Chain Performance with Data-Driven Decisions

Segment your supply chain by any criteria and use interactive dashboards to make real-time decisions.

- Segment by activity, scope, project, site, compliance level, or any custom criterion – public or private.
- Analyze each segment with powerful PowerBI dashboards and drill down to the finest detail.
- Notify any segment of changes in compliance, new requirements, or any relevant updates.

Connected in Synergy with Your Supply Chain Processes

Share all supplier-related information generated across your organization and enable everyone to make better decisions and operate more effectively.

- Connected to CAE: Gain deeper legal, labor, and HSE insights. Access records of past work. Automatically include subcontractors in your supply chain.
- Connected to the Marketplace: Trigger purchases or feasibility studies with just one click for the right supplier segment.
