

Supplier prequalification and monitoring

Stand out, build loyalty with your long-term customers and gain access to new ones

Showcase your status as a reliable and sustainable supplier to thousands of projects within the Construction Groups Community.

If you are already a CAE customer, this service is included in your plan.

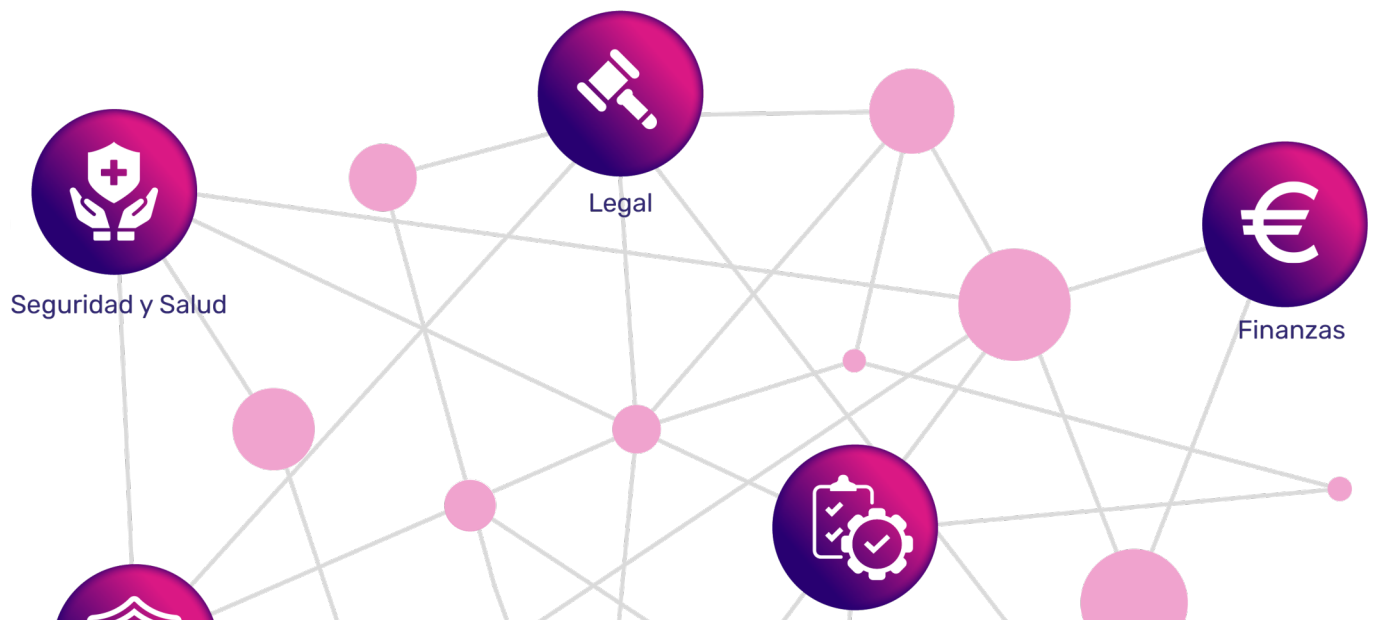

Generate new business opportunities by complying with the latest regulatory requirements

We know that the stability and growth of your business are essential, and for this reason:

There are good reasons to prequalify you as a supplier

- Stay in the game with Construction Groups that only work with pre-qualified suppliers, as required by their clients, public authorities, and CSR policies.
- Avoid risks stemming from strict and constantly changing sustainability regulations.
- Stand out from the competition as a reliable and sustainable company.

Extra value for CAE customers

- Already covered in your subscription; no extra cost.
- Your CAE footprint sets you apart as a trusted partner.

Be a reliable, sustainable and compliant supplier

Boost your image and expand your opportunities in the largest Construction Community Group

Master compliance and unlock a universe of clients you'll help proactively manage their risks.

Get prequalified and secure more stable clients on more profitable projects by joining increasingly demanding markets.

- Mitigate your own compliance risks and those of your clients with the peace of mind of always being up to date with current legislation.
- Contribute to building a more sustainable world while improving your risk profile for clients and financial institutions.
- Achieve it effortlessly: we'll guide you through a simple, step-by-step process.

Your best image, in the right place. Your compliance record working in your favor.

Professionals involved in purchasing decisions at thousands of construction companies within the Construction Community are seeing you.

- Stand out when construction groups are looking for companies like yours: reliable and sustainable.
- Get into the supply chains of major new clients—stable and high-value—without losing visibility among your current partners.
- Showcase your track record of successful projects where your compliance (CAE) was managed automatically with us.
